Entertainments

HONORED BY MISS ABERNATHY

One of the most delightfully planned Easter parties was given on Saturday afternoon by little Miss Martha Ann Abernathy, when she entertained complimentary to her little friend, Miss Evelyn McCall.

For the occasion her home on Laclede avenue was decorated with spring blossoms and artistic Easter favors.

Following a spirited egg hunt the charming little guests were entertained with games, for which cunning little rabbits, fluffy Easter chickens, baskets, hats and graceful swans, were awarded the lucky contestants, and last, but by no means least, came the refreshments which were served from a table beautifully decorated with Easter favors, and which carried out the Easter colors, white and green.
